

If you cuss then you can seriously hurt people's feelings and you don't want to do that . Here is a story to go with it.

“Why did you call me that”? “Ha ha” are you okay Jake”? Said Lily.
“ No I got called a cuss” said Jake “that is not good.what me to tell you a sto- ' ' yes please .Ok I was in my room minding my own business when all the sudden my brother came in and said a cuss word! I tried to tell my mom and dad but they did not listen. the time I got to resee I was totally bummed out!I sat by myself when I had an idea! I walked up to my brother, looked him in the eye and said “ why did you call me a cuss”? I said.He was red as a tomato! He growled to me”can we talk privately” he said “sure” “ I just learned not to say a cuss today. Besides you can trust your brother right “ and he promised not to say another cuss again
The end

“Wow that is quite a story” said Jake “I know “ said Lily proudly! “I think you should do the same”! “Okay”..... I did it and I made a new friend

And they lived happily ever after
