

come with me to LORNA about the Indians people and how stories were invented. You might ask how stories were told. I will tell you.
They made up stories that happened at that point and they were told to kids,

When they grew up they told their kids.
They got told every where forever.

this is a lake the Indians people fished in